

House Resolution No. 825

Whereas, it is a privilege afforded the members of the Missouri House of Representatives that they are given the opportunity to recognize those individuals who have shown remarkable devotion and commitment to the preservation of our great state by preparing our future citizens to accept the monumental responsibilities they will inherit; and

Whereas, it is also a privilege of the member of the Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International that they are given the opportunity to recognize women educators for their dedication and love of teaching during challenging times in our nation's history; and

Whereas, it is recognized that a strong, effective system of public education is essential to our system of government; and

Whereas, Margaret Thomson Ferguson is one of those extraordinary people who served this state and the city of Liberty, Missouri, and its children as a distinguished educator in the Depression and/or World War II eras; and

Whereas, the month of March has been proclaimed Women's History Month, in the year 2004, which marks the 175th Anniversary celebration of the founding of Liberty, Missouri:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join the honorable Annie Reinhart in extending our hearty congratulations at this recognition of outstanding dedication and in expressing our profound gratitude to Margaret Thomson Ferguson for her contributions in preparing our children to meet the future.

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Margaret Thomson Ferguson, as a measure of our esteem for her.
